COPYRIGHT AND CONSENT FORM

This form is for original material submitted to the 2022 61st FITCE International Congress Future Telecommunications: Infrastructure and Sustainability (FITCE). Other forms may not be substituted for this form, nor may any wording of the form be changed. Please read the form carefully and keep a copy for your files.

TITLE OF PAPER

(hereinafter, "the Work"):

COMPLETE LIST OF AUTHORS:

COPYRIGHT TRANSFER

1. The undersigned hereby assigns to AEIT Associazione Italiana di Elettrotecnica, Elettronica, Automazione, Informatica e Telecomunicazioni (AEIT) all rights under copyright that may exist in and to, and any revised papers submitted to the conference by the undersigned. The undersigned hereby warrants that he/she is the author of the paper. For the content incorporates text passages, figures, data or other material from others, the undersigned has obtained any necessary permission.

CONSENT AND RELEASE

2. The undersigned, in consideration for his/her participation in the conference, hereby grants AEIT the unlimited, worldwide, irrevocable permission to use, distribute, publish, license, exhibit, record, digitize, broadcast, reproduce and archive, in any format or medium, whether now known or hereafter developed: (a) his/her presentation and comments at the conference; (b) any written materials or multimedia files used in connection with his/her presentation; and (c) any recorded interviews of him/her (collectively, the "Presentation"). The permission granted includes the transcription and reproduction of the Presentation for inclusion in products sold or distributed by AEIT and live or recorded broadcast of the Presentation during or after the conference.

3. In connection with the permission granted in Section 2, the undersigned hereby grants AEIT the unlimited, worldwide, irrevocable right to use his/her name, picture, likeness, voice and biographical information as part of the advertisement, distribution and sale of products incorporating the Work or Presentation, and releases AEIT from any claim based on right of privacy or publicity.

4. The undersigned hereby warrants that the Work and Presentation (collectively, the "Materials") are original and that he/she is the author of the Materials. To the extent the Materials incorporate text passages, figures, data or other material from the works of others, the undersigned has obtained any necessary permissions. Where necessary, the undersigned has obtained all third party permissions and consents to grant the license above and has provided copies of such permissions and consents to AEIT.

GENERAL TERMS

- The undersigned represents that he/she has the power and authority to make and execute this assignment.
- The undersigned agrees to indemnify and hold harmless AEIT from any damage or expense that may arise in the event of a breach of any of the warranties set forth above.
- In the event the above work is not accepted and published by AEIT or is withdrawn by the author(s) before acceptance by AEIT, the foregoing copyright transfer shall become null and void and all materials embodying the Work submitted to the AEIT will be destroyed.
- For jointly authored Works, one of the authors should sign as authorized agent for the others.

Please note

This conference is included in the IEEE Conference Publications Program (CPP). IEEE has a long-standing commitment to ensuring the high quality of its conferences and of the conference proceedings published in IEEE Xplore®. Therefore, IEEE reserves the right to withhold publishing of proceedings that do not meet the IEEE quality standards. IEEE makes every reasonable attempt to ensure that abstract and index entries of content accepted into the CPP are included in databases provided by independent abstracting and indexing (A&I) services. Each A&I partner makes its own editorial decision on what content it will index. IEEE cannot guarantee entries are included in any particular database.

RETAINED RIGHTS/TERMS AND CONDITIONS

General

1. Authors/employers retain all proprietary rights in any process, procedure, or article of manufacture described in the Work.
2. Authors/employers may reproduce or authorize others to reproduce the Work, material extracted verbatim from the Work, or derivative works for the author's personal use or for company use, provided that the source and the AEIT copyright notice are indicated, the copies are not used in any way that implies AEIT endorsement of a product or service of any employer, and the copies themselves are not offered for sale.
3. Although authors are permitted to re-use all or portions of the Work in other works, this does not include granting third-party requests for reprinting, republishing, or other types of re-use. AEIT must handle all such third-party requests.
4. For quotes: "Title of Paper, Authors, in 2022 61st FITCE International Congress Future Telecommunications: Infrastructure and Sustainability (FITCE), Rome, Italy, September, 29-30, 2022 – ISBN 978-88-87237-53-5"

Author Online Use

4. Personal Servers. Authors and/or their employers shall have the right to post the accepted version of AEIT-copyrighted articles on their own personal servers or the servers of their institutions or employers without permission from AEIT, provided that the posted version includes a prominently displayed AEIT copyright notice and, when published, a full citation to the original AEIT publication.
5. Classroom or Internal Training Use. An author is expressly permitted to post any portion of the accepted version of his/her own AEIT-copyrighted articles on the author's personal web site or the servers of the author's institution or company in connection with the author's teaching, training, or work responsibilities, provided that the appropriate copyright, credit, and reuse notices appear prominently with the posted material. Examples of permitted uses are lecture materials, course packs, e-reserves, conference presentations, or in-house training courses.
6. Electronic Preprints. Before submitting an article to AEIT, authors frequently post their manuscripts to their own web site, their employer's site, or to another server that invites constructive comment from colleagues. Upon submission of an article to AEIT, an author is required to transfer copyright in the article to AEIT, and the author must update any previously posted version of the article with a prominently displayed AEIT copyright notice. Upon publication of an article by AEIT, the author must replace any previously posted electronic versions of the article with either the full citation to the AEIT Conference.

INFORMATION FOR AUTHORS

Author Responsibilities

AEIT distributes its technical publications throughout its members and conference participants and wants to ensure that the material submitted to its publications is properly available to the readership of those publications. It is the responsibility of the authors, not AEIT, to determine whether disclosure of their material requires the prior consent of other parties and, if so, to obtain it. Authors are also advised that statements and opinions given in work published by the AEIT are the expression of the authors.

AEIT Copyright Ownership

It is the formal policy of the AEIT to own the copyrights to all copyrightable material in its technical publications and to the individual contributions contained therein, in order to protect the interests of AEIT, its authors and their employers, and, at the same time, to facilitate the appropriate re-use of this material by others. AEIT distributes its technical publications to its members and conference participants and does so by various means such as hard copy, microfiche, microfilm, and electronic media. It also abstracts and may translate its publications, and articles contained therein, for inclusion in various compendiums, collective works, databases and similar publications.

THIS FORM MUST ACCOMPANY THE SUBMISSION OF THE AUTHOR'S MANUSCRIPT.

Questions about the submission of the form or manuscript must be sent to the Conference Secretariat: fitce2022@aeit.it
